Over 3 years of professional experience.

Since 2021, I've worked as a full-stack developer, but my coding journey started back in middle school. I'm currently seeking a creative job that allows me to continue learning and creating new things. I don't mind switching to other technologies.

EXPERIENCE

Full-stack Engineer Skill and Chill

12.2021 -
present

I added new features, improved performance, and maintained code quality. I introduced new translations, charts and theme systems. I worked on the reports and delegation module. I led a development project in next.js.

Technologies
